Making salt for four generations

Since 1882, our salt has been made with the same traditional artisan methods in the coastal town of Maldon. It is unchanging yet ever-changing, constant yet continuously challenging. However, the salt always remains the same.

Proudly Grown in Britain

We work directly  with 1,200 British farmers in East Anglia to grow our sugar beet.

The sugar beet then travels directly from farm to local factory - the most efficient journey from field to spoon.

In just a few simple steps our factory in Bury St Edmunds turns the sugar beet into our range of homegrown sugars!

 What's more we really care about sustainability; our bags are recyclable, we offset the paper we use by planting trees, we send nothing to landfill and our excess production energy powers British homes.

MARKET REPORT

May 2026

From Spring Lift to Summer Shift!

MAY UPDATE

Each month Dole provides an update on what is happening in the marketplace.

We explain which new lines we expect to see in the following month, the produce causing us concern and which lines are at their very best.

OVERVIEW

Whether you're planning for the weeks ahead, building early summer menus, or simply looking to add a fresh twist to the plate, May offers something for every kitchen — with plenty of reasons for cautious optimism.

VEGETABLES

It has, however, been a volatile few months across the supply chain, and while there are clear signs of stability returning, a degree of caution remains.

Pricing may begin to ease as volumes improve, but underlying pressures particularly ongoing disruptions in the Middle East and its impact on fuel and logistics — mean the market is not entirely out of the woods just yet.

This is the true bridge between spring and summer — a month where menus can gradually develop, shaped by a growing range of vibrant, seasonal ingredients.

The UK salad season gets underway, bringing improved availability and freshness, while soft fruit have been arriving — much-anticipated return, setting the tone for the months ahead.

Asparagus continues to shine, still very much a star of the show, though the season will begin to taper off towards the end of May and into June. Alongside this, Jersey Royals will build in volume, joined by a wave of new-season potatoes.

Blanchers, maincrop carrots are nearing the end of their season, with imported product from Spain, France and China to bridge the gap until new-crop arrivals begin in June.

Spanish broccoli is also coming to a close, with UK-grown product stepping in ahead of Scottish crops expected in early June.

- 4.1 . Any dates specified by the Company for delivery of the Goods are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery shall not be made of the essence by notice. The Company shall endeavour to keep to any stated dispatch or delivery date, and shall use its own drivers or make other such arrangements as the Company sees fit for the delivery of the Goods to the Customer.
- 4.2 . If any order for Goods is to be delivered by several instalments, each such instalment shall be treated as a separate and identifiable contract, and shall be invoiced and paid in accordance with the provisions of the Contract. The Company shall be entitled to suspend or cancel delivery whilst payment is overdue in respect of any previous instalment or under any other contract with the Customer, without prejudice to the exercise of any other rights hereunder or under any other such contract.
- 4.3. All risks, whether insurable or otherwise, relating to the Goods shall pass to the Customer upon the Goods being left at the Customers premises irrespective of whether or not the costs of transportation of the Goods is payable by the Customer.
- 4.4. If for any reason the Customer fails to accept delivery of any Goods when they are ready for delivery, or the Company is unable to deliver the Goods on time because of a lack of instruction from the Customer, the risk in the Goods shall pass to the Buyer (including for loss or damage caused by the Company's negligence) and the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered.

5. Price
- 5.1. Unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing, the price for the Goods shall be the price set out in the Company's price list published on the date of delivery. The Company reserves the right to alter its price as well as the specifications, type or quality of the Goods at any time.

- 8.6. In the event of there being any dispute as to whether or not the Goods are defective at the time of delivery the Company shall be entitled to apply such tests as may be necessary but the Company shall not be responsible for any loss occurring or for any damage to the Goods occasioned by such tests.

- 9.3. Save as otherwise required by UK legislation, the Company's total liability for any loss, damages, costs or expenses shall not exceed an amount equal to the invoice value for the Goods.
10. Suspension or Termination on Breach
- The Company reserves the right to suspend, delay or terminate any contract or to require payment in advance if the Customer is in breach of any of its obligations to the Company, if the Customer suers execution or distress to be levied upon any of its property, or if (being an individual) the Customer become bankrupt or makes any arrangement with its creditors, or (being a company) enter into liquidation (whether compulsory or voluntary), or shall have a receiver or administrative receiver appointed of all or any of its assets. Upon occurrence of any of the above events the Company shall (in addition to its rights to recover from the Customer all sums due to the Company) have the right to recover or deduct or set-off the amount of any loss, damage or expense incurred by the Company by reason of the Customers breach and (in the case of termination of any contract) the right to recover any goods supplied and to retain or sell them. The Company also shall be entitled to withhold any monies that are owed to the Customer by the Company as contra payment of any of the above breaches.
11. Force Majeure
- The Company reserves the right to defer the date of delivery or to cancel the Contract or reduce the volume of the Goods ordered by the Customer (without liability to the Customer) if it is prevented from or delayed in the carrying on of its business due to circumstance beyond the reasonable control of the Company including, without limitation, acts of God, governmental actions, war or national emergency, acts of terrorism, protests, riot, civil commotion, fire explosion, flood, epidemic, lock-outs, strikes or other labour disputes (whether or not relating to either party's workforce), or restraints or delays affecting carriers or inability or delay in obtaining supplies of adequate or suitable materials, provided that, if the event in question continues for a continuous period in excess of 2 days, the Customer shall be entitled to give notice in writing to the Company to terminate the Contract.
